

NITTE

(Deemed to be University established u/s 3 of UGC Act, 1956)

POLICY AGAINST SEXUAL HARASSMENT

1. PREAMBLE

Nitte (Deemed to be University) Mangalore (herein after referred to as 'NU') is committed to creating and maintaining a community in which students, teachers and non-teaching staff can work together in an environment free of violence, harassment, exploitation, intimidation and stress. This includes all forms of gender violence, sexual harassment and discrimination on the basis of sex/gender or amongst the same sex members. Every member of the NU should be aware that while the NU is committed to the right to freedom of expression and association, it strongly support gender equality and opposes any form of gender discrimination and violence.

2. SCOPE OF REFERENCE FOR NITTE (Deemed to be University)

In formulating a policy for preventing and redressing sexual harassment, the fact that NU consists of a number of academic departments and administrative offices in the NU campus and 5 constituent colleges and research centres, health centres, hospital has been considered. The NU has a constituency of almost 3000 students and 1500 employees. A majority of these people commute to their "work place" (i.e. place of work/study) from various parts of the city. The interpretation of the term, "work place," for the purpose of the policy for NU, will extend to all public spheres that remain in contact with members of the NU community. Such public spaces include not just the physical premises under the supervision of the NU system, but even areas in and outside Mangalore, where the NU members reside or travel to as part of their work as members of the NU. The jurisdiction will include fieldtrips, sports tournaments, conferences, college festivals and all other activities undertaken by any person as a member of NU.

3. GUIDING PRINCIPLES FOR DEFINITION OF SEXUAL HARASSMENT & REDRESSAL MECHANISM :

This policy defines sexual harassment and the mechanisms of redressal by looking at the specific structures, needs and imperatives in the NU. It is guided by the definition of sexual harassment given by the Supreme Court in 1997 in Vishaka vs. State of Rajasthan and UGC (Prevention, Prohibition and redressal of sexual harassment of women employees and students in higher educational institutions) Regulations 2015 (vide MHRD- UGC- Notification dated 02.05.2016).

Role of Heads of the Institutes/ Units is to bring in preventive steps through seminars awareness programmes, workshops etc.. as per the approval of The Registrar - NU. On the other hand role of ICC is not only to undertake preventive measures or steps but also to handle complaints as per the respective UGC guidelines. In other terms ICC will be considered as a prime body to handle complaints under this policy.

(a) Preventive Steps

- i. To create and ensure a safe environment that is free of sexual harassment.
- ii. To create an atmosphere promoting equality and gender justice.
- iii. To publicize the policy in Kannada and English widely, especially through prospectuses, notice boards etc.
- iv. To publicize in English and in Kannada the names and phone numbers of members of the committee.
- v. To plan and carry out programmes for gender sensitization.

(b) Remedial Steps

- i. The mechanism for registering complaints should be safe, accessible and sensitive.
- ii. To take cognizance of complaints about sexual harassment, conduct enquiries, provide assistance and redressal to the victims, recommend penalties and take action against the harasser, if necessary.
- iii. To recommend to the concerned authorities follow-up action and monitor the same.
- iv. To advise the disciplinary authority concerned to issue warnings or take the help of the law to stop the harasser, if the complainant consents.
- v. To seek medical, police and legal intervention with the consent of the complainant.
- vi. To make arrangements for appropriate psychological, emotional and physical support (in the form of counseling, security and other assistance) to the victim if/so desires.

16. PROCEDURE FOR REGISTERING COMPLAINTS:

- (a) An Aggrieved person is required to file written complaint within 3 months in writing from the date of incident and in case of series of incidents within a period of three months from the date of last incident. Provided that where such complaint cannot be made in writing Presiding member or any member of internal complaint committee shall render all reasonable assistance to person for making complaint. Provided further that ICC may, for reasons to be accorded in writing, extend the time limit not exceeding three months, if it is satisfied that circumstances were such which prevented the person from filing a complaint within the said period.
- (b) Friends relatives colleagues costudents psychologists or any other associate of the victim may file complaints where aggrieved person is unable to make complaint on account of physical or mental incapacity.

17. ENQUIRY PROCEDURES

- (a) Any complaints made to any committee member must be received and recorded by the member, who shall then inform the Presiding Officer about the complaint, who in turn shall call a meeting of the internal complaints committee.
- (b) All meetings of the Committee will be called by the Member Secretary in consultation with the The Presiding Officer and a notice of at least 3 to 5 working days must be given.
- (c) ICC shall upon receipt of the complaint send one copy of the complaint to the respondent within a period of seven days of such receipt.
- (d) Upon receipt of the copy of of the complaint, the respondent shall file his or reply to the complainant along with the list of documents and names and addresses of witnesses with in a period of ten days.
- (e) The inquiry has to be completed with in a period of 90 days from the receipt of the complaint. The inquiry report, with recommendations, if any, has to be submitted with in ten days form the completion of the enquiry to the Registrar. Copy of the findings or recommendations shall be served on both parties to the complainant.
- (f) The Registrar shall act on recommendations of the committee with in a period of 30 days from the receipt of the inquiry report unless an appeal against the findings is filed within that time by either party.
- (g) An appeal against the findings or recommendations of the ICC may be filed by either party before the Vice Chancellor through the Registrar- NU within a period of 30 days form the date of recommendations.
- (h) If the Registrar decides not to act as per the recommendations of the ICC, then he shall record written reasons for the same to be conveyed to ICC and both the parties to the proceeding. If on the other hand it is decided to act as per the recommendations of ICC, then a show cause notice answerable within ten days, shall be served on the party, against whom action is decided to be taken. The Registrar shall proceed only after considering the reply or hearing the aggrieved person.
- (i) The aggrieved party may seek conciliation in order to settle the matter. No monetary settlement should be made as a basis of conciliation. The Registrar shall facilitate a conciliation process through ICC as the case may be, once it is sought. The resolution of the conflict to the full satisfaction of the aggrieved party wherever possible, is preferred to purely punitive intervention.
- (j) The identities of the aggrieved party or victim or the offender shall not be made public or kept in the public domain especially during the process of enquiry.
- (k) The Committee is bound to maintain confidentiality during the time of the enquiry (in order not to prejudice the proceedings).

NOTE:

- i. A complainant has the right to go public if she so desires. Going public before giving in the complaint to the committee by the complainant should not prejudice the committee members. Once a complaint has been given to the committee, the complainant should preferably not go public till the enquiry is completed unless required.
- ii. Filing of a grievance/complaint shall not adversely affect the complainant's status/job, salary/promotion, grades etc.
- iii. The ICC should make efforts to ensure that the complainants and the witnesses are not further victimised or discriminated against while it is dealing with the complaint. The committee shall make recommendations to The Registrar- NU to take action against anyone who intimidates the complainant or members of the committee, during or after the enquiry.
- iv. Any committee member charged with sexual harassment in a written complaint must step down as member during the enquiry into that complaint.
- v. The ICC should form a small crisis intervention group comprising a group of committee members who should be readily accessible. Atleast 75 percent of the crisis intervention group should be women. The telephone numbers of members should be widely publicised. The committee should have names and easy access to groups and/or individuals who can assist by providing legal, medical and/or psychological help.
- vi. During the pendency of an enquiry, on a written request made by the complainant , the ICC the case may recommend to the Registrar- NU to
 - ➔ transfer the complainant to any other workplace or
 - ➔ grant leave to the complainant upto a period of three months or
 - ➔ grant such other relief to the complainant as may be prescribed.

The leave granted to the complainant under this circumstance shall be in addition to the leave she would be otherwise entitled.

18 INTERIM REDRESSAL

- (a) Transfer the complainant or the respondent to another section or department to minimise the risks involved in contact or interaction, if such recommendation is made by the ICC.
- (b) Grant leave to the aggrieved with full protection of status and benefits for a period upto 3 months.

- (c) the aggrieved person is entitled to payment of compensation. The NU shall issue direction for the payment of compensation as recommended by the ICC and as accepted by the Vice Chancellor, which shall be recovered from the offender. The compensation payable shall be determined on the basis of
 - i. mental trauma, pain, suffering and distress caused to the aggrieved person.
 - ii. the loss of career opportunity due to the incident of sexual harassment.
 - iii. the medical expenses incurred by the victim for physical and psychiatric treatment
 - iv. the income and status of the alleged perpetrator and victim; and
 - v. Feasibility of such payment in lump sum or in installments.
- (d) In the case of third party harassment/outside harassment, the NU shall initiate action by making a complaint with the appropriate authority.
- (e) Enhancement of disciplinary action, by the committee, could depend on factors such as the nature and extent of injury caused to the complainant, the impact of the violation on the institutions as a whole, the position of the harasser in the power hierarchy, repetition of offence etc.
- (f) Non-adversarial modes of redressal and resolution could also be considered in appropriate cases. Examples of this may be verbal warning, verbal apology, promise of good behaviour etc.

21. ACTIONS AGAINST FRIVOLOUS COMPLAINTS

- (a) To ensure that the provisions for the protection of employees and students from sexual harassment do not get misused, provisions against false or malicious complaints have to be made and publicised within the institute and NU.
- (b) If the ICC concludes that the allegations made were false malicious or the complainant was made knowing it to be untrue or forged or misleading information has been provided during the inquiry, the complainant shall be liable to be punished as per clause 17 (a) of this policy and as per clause 17 (b) of this policy if the complainant happens to be student.
- (c) However the mere inability to substantiate a complaint or provide adequate proof will not attract attention against the complainant. Malicious intent on the part of the complainant shall not be established without an inquiry in accordance with the procedures prescribed, conducted before any action is recommended.

22. AMENDMENTS TO THE POLICY

On the basis of their experience of the working of the policy, ICC or Head of the institutes/ units will have the power to make recommendations to the Vice Chancellor - NU and the Registrar -NU and for bringing changes in the policy. The Vice Chancellor after adequate consultation shall make recommendations to the Board of Management about changes in the policy, as and when required in keeping with the preamble and objectives of the policy.
